Dear Bayer team,

See attached for a letter including terms and conditions for the pending amendment to your OTT dicamba product. One copy is clean, the other is marked. On the marked copy, we have shown in green the things that changed compared to the previous version that you read and agreed to. In yellow we have indicated the text in the letter that may change from an “x days after approval” to a numerical date representing that timeframe.

If you agree to the terms and conditions as outlined in this letter, please respond to this message attaching a copy of the draft letter and indicating your acceptance of the attached.
